JUDGE CLEANS UP LAS CRUCES DOCKET

Criminal Cases Disposed of in the Court; Many Civil Cases Pending.

Las Cruces, N. M., Oct. 21.—Judge Wright, of Alamogordo, who is on the bench in this district during the absence of Judge Parker, states that he proposes to clean up the docket for this district at this session if it can possibly be done, and has given notice that night sessions will be held if necessary. When court opened at noon yesterday there were only four cases left on the criminal docket, and these will not take up much time. There is enough business on the civil side, however, to keep the court busy for the next three weeks.

The jury in the case of Jefferson Lewis, who was charged with assault, being armed with a deadly weapon, returned a verdict of guilty. In the case of Audencio Enriquez and Willie Benton, the defendants entered a plea of guilty to assault and battery and were fined $5 and costs, the fine being remitted. Cases against both these men, individually, on the same charge, were nolle.

In the case against Bradford Hardie, of El Paso, which came up over the distribution of water from the ditches in the lower end of this county, the first count was nolle, and Mr. Hardie pleaded guilty on the second count to carrying a deadly weapon, and was fined by the court $50 and costs. Two cases against H. T. Wadley on a charge of drawing worthless checks were dropped with leave to replead. The case against Elvino Bustero, who was charged with deadly assault with a deadly weapon, was nolle.

LAS CRUCES STRUCK BY THE FIRST COLD WAVE.

Las Cruces, N. M., Oct. 21.—Las Cruces experienced a genuine winter snap yesterday. Stoves are being resurrected, and coal bins beginning to loom large in the horizon of the household. If the present cold spell holds on and the sky remains cloudy it is predicted that there will be snow on the mountains tonight.

Vivian, the daughter of sheriff Felipe Lucero, who has been quite ill at her home in this city, is reported better.

A marriage license was issued in the probate clerk's office yesterday to Herculano H. Barragan and Soledad Tarin. Both parties live in Berino and will make that town their future home.

Dan Neewe's party of hunters returned home after a four days' hunt for deer in the mountains to the east of Las Cruces. They were over as far as the white sands and say that they did not see a deer and only a few fresh signs so the indications are that the hunting for this season will have to be done further away than the Organ mountains.

Y. W. C. A. OPENS ITS BOARDING HOME

West Missouri Street Structure Is Dedicated With Fitting Ceremonies.

The opening on Thursday evening of the Young Women's Christian association boarding house was one of the important events of the week and marks a distinct epoch in the club history of the city.

The affair was combined with a farewell reception to the president, Mrs. Robert Bruce Smith, who will soon leave for her future home in Parkersburg, W. Va.

No formal receiving line greeted the visitors, but each member of the board of directors formed a committee of one to act as guide and hostess throughout the evening. From 8 to 11 o'clock throngs of visitors passed through the building, viewing the artistic appointments, perfect equipment, and careful arrangements that have been made to meet every possible requirement of the boarding home.

A few hearty words of welcome were spoken by the general secretary, Miss Mabel Stafford, which was followed by the invocation by Rev. Robert Bruce Smith. Mrs. W. C. Davis, chairman of the building committee, spoke of the effective work that had been accomplished, and expressed appreciation of the hearty support given by the business men of El Paso.

Mrs. Davis, as chairman of the building committee, turned the keys over to the president, Mrs. Robert Bruce Smith. In receiving them Mrs. Smith thanked the board of directors, and members for their earnest cooperation, and untiring energy in carrying forward the work of building and equipping the boarding home.

Mrs. J. A. Rawlings, chairman of the furnishing committee, spoke of the assistance received from the subcommittees, and the individuality they had displayed in the furnishing of the rooms. Mrs. Rawlings stated that there were still other rooms that could be taken by friends of the association for the purpose of furnishing. Among those who have fitted up rooms are Mrs. Empress Arrington, Mrs. J. G. McNary, J. J. Mundy, Thomas Nealon, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Potter, Miss Ashcroft, Miss Thirza L. Wescott, J. M. Wyatt, L. B. Bookkeeper. The furnishing committee supplied the attractive furnishings of the reception hall, and many other handsome donations have been received.

Of the subcommittees assisting the chairman in the work of furnishing, Mrs. Alice P. Thompson and Mrs. Frederick Norton were in charge of the interior decorations, and under their artistic supervision the entire home presented a comfortable, inviting, and restful atmosphere. Mrs. H. T. Bowie and Mrs. E. C. Kroeger, El Paso; R. L. Samuch, Chickasha, Okla.; J. D. Mills, Memphis, Tenn.; J. A. Brizger, Ridge-way, Pa.; H. L. Bartlett, Austin; F. G. Freeman, San Marcos, Tex.; J. S. Moore, Galina, Kan.; J. C. Miller, El Paso.

The sewing room, which was one of the attractive features of the home, was furnished by Mrs. W. E. Race, and was equipped with long tables, full length mirrors, cutting tables, Dyck, Mrs. J. H. Murphy, and Miss Margaret Hitchcock were the committee in charge of the furnishing of the dining room, kitchen and pantry.

The beauty of the new home was accentuated by the quantities of pink roses and other cut flowers, which were sent from Phoenix, Ariz., as a gift to the home secretary, Mrs. Anabel Depew. Palms and ferns were also effectively grouped in the hall and through the reception rooms, and were attractively used in the decoration of the dining room. The refreshment table held an exquisite centerpiece of pink chrysanthemums, while smilax were scattered over the table in graceful profusion.

Cake and coffee were served to the callers, with Mrs. Brown presiding at the urn.

A most pleasing musical program was given under the direction of Mrs. J. G. McNary, chairman of the social committed, and included numbers by A. F. Stevers, Miss Helen Cooper, Carl Hendrich, Marvin Witt and Francis Moore. Mrs. Anabel Depew has been appointed house secretary, and will look after the comfort and pleasure of the young women.

The success and completeness of arrangement was due to the dispatch, ability and earnest effort of the general secretary, Miss Mabel E. Stafford, and the board of directors.

The attractive home. Not only is the boarding home good to look at, it is model in comfort giving arrangement and appointments, modern in every detail, but without disregard of the artistic.

After a look at the exterior of the unusual structure as it stands at Missouri and Fisher streets overlooking the valley, one ascends steps to a wide porch, and enters a spacious hall. To the right is the living room, to the rear the secretary's offices and quarters and bedrooms, and from the entrance hall wide stairways lead to the second and third floors.

Color Scheme Perfect. Throughout the building is in old English wood work. The main hall and living room is done in green walls and green carpets. The living room is furnished with comfortable arm chairs, large tables, and a piano. On either side of a huge fire place are built stationary bookcases, and window seats. On the main floors and the two upper stories are in all 22 bedrooms for the young women who will live under shelter of the roof. A striking feature of these bedrooms is the absolute difference of each. Not one like another, varying color schemes of tinted walls and dainty feminine furniture, suggests nothing of the institution. On the second floor is a sewing room, with full length glass, machines, and cutting table. On the third story is a kitchenette where the boarders may make "fudge" or other cherished sweets of the chaffing dish order.

The Dining Room. Lighted by windows from the ground level, the half-basement contains the largest room of the structure, the dining hall. Tints of brown from woodwork to ceiling, afford a most pleasant character to the room. Its side walls are surrounded by plate racks, with a different shade of brown above and below. The dining tables are small, set in homelike arrangement. A huge sideboard stands at the rear of the room and at one side is another old style fireplace, built of brown bricks. An

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 21.—In north and central Texas thousands of bales of cotton are going to waste as a result of a shortage of cotton pickers. Employment agencies here are being flooded with telegrams asking that pickers be rushed to those sections at once. As high as $1 and $1.25 a hundred is being offered to pickers. The usual price range from 50 to 75 cents.

Owing to the era of industrial prosperity prevailing here, which is giving employment to every day laborer who desires work at good wages, few cotton pickers can be found. This labor is usually supplied by the Mexicans. They begin to leave San Antonio about the first of August loading their families and all their belongings into a wagon drawn by burros. They begin picking in the sections of south Texas where cotton is harvested early and gradually work their way north, often having profitable employment until Christmas.
